Mount Saint Vincent is on a roll as senior Cynthia Osorio's bid to earn HVWAC All-Conference honors for the fourth consecutive season went into overdrive this weekend as she tallied a career high eight points (three goals, two assists) as Mount Saint Vincent won its third straight game with a 7-0 win over Polytechnic on Saturday. Osorio's foot was so hot that she played the final 17 minutes of the game in goal and did not allow a goal, making one save. Osorio and Mount Saint Vincent have a huge game this week when they travel to CSI on Thursday for a match that could determine the HVWAC Championship.
ROOKIE OF THE WEEK KRISTINA PHU - CCNY Freshman - Midfield - Queens, NY (Cardozo)	HUDSON VALLEY WOMEN'S ATHLETIC CONFERENCE Mike Spinner - Sports Information Director O: 212-960-0042 F: 212-960-0088 E: mspinner@yu.edu
For the second time this season, Kristina Phu is the HVWAC Rookie of the Week after leading the vastly improved Beavers to a huge 2-0 win over Medgar Evers on Wednesday. Phu scored a huge insurance goal to seal the victory during the final minutes. After finishing fifth in HVWAC action a year ago, CCNY has managed to compete with the very best the conference has to offer in 2007.
HONOR ROLL
CHANTELLE BLAIR - Saint Elizabeth: Blair, a senior, did it all this week as CSE went 1-1 against Skyline Conference competition. She assisted on CSE's only goal during a 5-1 loss to Mount St. Mary on Wednesday, and then registered two points and stopped five out of six shots during the second half of a 2-1 win over Polytechnic.
